

POEMS!
TRUE STORIES!

brillobox

THE BOOK
ISSUE

THURSDAY, AUGUST 4 @ 7PM

4-Author Book Launch!

Lori Jakiela, Adam Matcho, Dave Newman, and Kareem Tayyar launch new books at special Brillobox reading!

Join us for an epic reading of poems and true stories about bad jobs and good friends!

Very special limited edition of
THE SAME DEAD SONGS

with cover art by Lou Ickes

"In this exquisitely paced, wrenchingly beautiful tale of addictions, of needing help, of helping and not helping, of fighting and surviving, of the will and wonder and work of loving hard, of brokenness and the precarious impulse to apply the glue and clamp ourselves back together, Newman proves that he is beyond truth-seeker. The Same Dead Songs is a darkly enjoyable, heart-opening schooling."

-Nancy Krygoski, The Woman In The Corner

"In this collection of beautifully-wrought sprawling narratives and pithy poems, Lori Jakiela examines what it means to be happy, even in a world where 'crows teach us everything.' Her versatile voice ranges from existential to badass, quoting such disparate sources as Samuel Beckett, Hemingway, and even Shakespearean blueberry muffins."

-Nancy Naomi Carlson

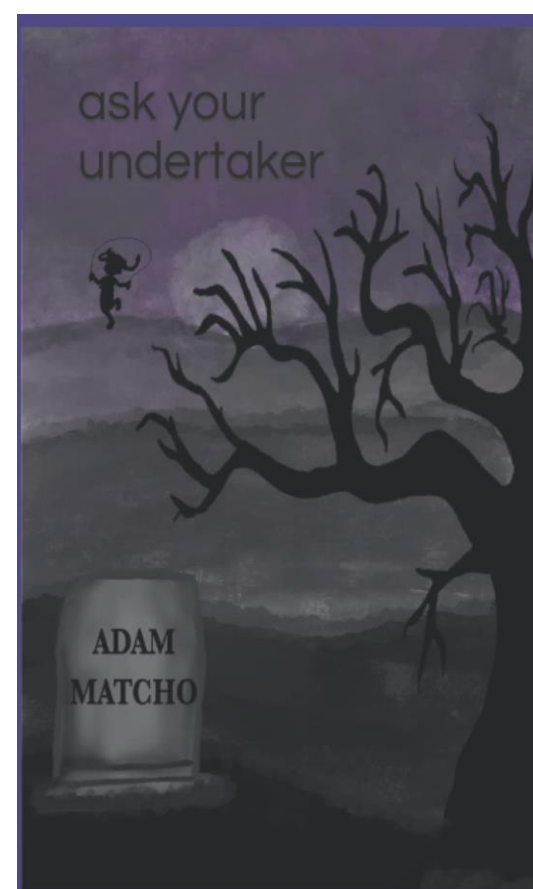

Kareem Tayyar's new book, released by J.New Books

"Adam Matcho writes like James Wright dumped in the river of Hunter S. Thompson. This book is genius. Everything you need to know about America happens between these pages."

-Dave Newman, East Pittsburgh Downlow

"Kareem Tayyar's luminous characters are immigrants and hitchhikers, poets and dreamers, and his stories are gorgeous windows into an America that glitters with hope and deliverance."

-Faith Shearin, Darwin's Daughter

www.brilloboxpgh.com

Your Neighborhood Pittsburgh Bar

www.jnewbooks.com

an international press
promoting cutting-edge literature

www.sterlingclackclack.com

the best in contemporary literature from around the world